

B1 GERMAN FLUENCY SELF-EVALUATION CHECKLIST

How to Use This Checklist

This checklist is designed to help you track your progress and determine if you are ready to pass a B1-level German proficiency exam. B1 marks your transition from beginner to intermediate. At this level, you become an independent user of German, able to handle everyday situations, express opinions, and discuss familiar topics with greater confidence.

While Using This Checklist

☐

Review each item carefully.

☐

Check off the skills and knowledge you have mastered.

☐

Focus your study efforts on the items you haven't yet mastered.

☐

Be honest! This is for your personal growth.

CEFR Descriptions for B1

Level:

Listening

☐

I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programs on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

Reading

☐

I can understand texts that consist mainly of high-frequency everyday or job-related language. I can understand the description of events, feelings, and wishes in personal letters.

Spoken Interaction

☐

I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst traveling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest, or pertinent to everyday life (e.g., family, hobbies, work, travel, and current events).

Spoken Production

☐

I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes, and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. I can narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe my reactions.

Writing

☐

I can write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.
