

A1 GERMAN FLUENCY SELF-EVALUATION CHECKLIST

How to Use This Checklist

This checklist is designed to help you track your progress and determine if you are ready to pass an A1-level German proficiency exam. The A1 level is the first milestone on your German language journey, representing your ability to handle basic communication needs and simple interactions.

While Using This Checklist

☐

Review each item carefully.

☐

Check off the skills and knowledge you have mastered.

☐

Focus your study efforts on the items you haven't yet mastered.

☐

Be honest! This is for your personal growth.

CEFR Descriptions for A1 Level:

Listening

☐ I can recognize familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family, and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.

Reading

☐ I can understand familiar names, words, and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogs.

Spoken Interaction

☐ I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.

Spoken Production

☐ I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.

Writing

☐ I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality, and address on a hotel registration form.

GENERAL ABILITIES

☐

Communicate about basic personal information and immediate surroundings.

☐

Understand and use a vocabulary of approximately 500 words.

☐
