

C2 GERMAN FLUENCY

SELF-EVALUATION CHECKLIST

How to Use This Checklist

This checklist is designed to help you track your progress and determine if you are ready to pass a C2-level German proficiency exam. C2 represents near-native mastery: full control over the language's style, nuance, register, and emotional depth.

While Using This Checklist

☐

Review each item carefully.

☐

Check off the skills and knowledge you have mastered.

☐

Focus your study efforts on the items you haven't yet mastered.

☐

Be honest! This is for your personal growth.

CEFR Descriptions for C2

Level:

Listening

☐

I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.

Reading

☐

I can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialized articles, and literary works.

Spoken Interaction

☐

I can take part effortlessly in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely.

Spoken Production

☐

I can present a clear, smoothly flowing description or argument in a style appropriate to the context and with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points.

Writing

☐

I can write clear, smoothly flowing text in an appropriate style. I can write complex letters, reports or articles which present a case with an effective logical structure.
